Re: United States v. Patrick Deese
05 Cr 720 (JG)

s/John Gleeson

Dear Judge Gleeson:

Patrick Deese is scheduled to appear before you tomorrow January 20, 2006 for sentencing in the above referenced case. I write to request a brief adjournment of the sentencing hearing for two reasons.

Mr. Deese resides in Florida and has been unable, for financial reasons to fly to New York for a face to face review with me of his PSR. (I have spoken to him on numerous occasions by telephone concerning certain matters in the report however) and it is my opinion that a more meaningful setting is needed to discuss certain matters.

Second, in an attempt to resolve certain issues, I have reached out to the government, and the government is attempting to resolve the issues in question. I have not as yet received the governments motion pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3553(e) and U.S.S.G 5k1.1. and thus will not have sufficient time to review that with Mr. Deese prior to the sentencing.

I have attempted notify the government of this request, but I have not received a response from the government. I therefore request a two week adjournment of the sentencing hearing in this case

Very truly yours,

Donald D. duBoulay
